

JOINT MANUEVER READINESS CENTER

299th FSB COMBAT LOGISTICS PATROL DRUMBEAT

PV2 JONES TAKES NOTES DURING THE COMBAT LOGISTICS PATROL BRIEF. SPC THUO SCANS HIS SECTOR WHILE THE COMABT LOGISTICS PATROL PERFORMS A SECURITY HALT FOR AN IED.

FUELERS FROM TF 1-77AR AND A/299 FSB CONDUCT BULK REFUEL OPERATIONS AT PATROL BASE RAZOR, ISSUING OVER 9,000 GALLONS TO TF 1-77AR.

299th FSB COMBAT LOGISTICS PATROL DRUMBEAT

SPC WIRTJES AND PV2 LABARRE PREPARE TO ENGAGE THE ENEMY WITH CREW SERVED WEAPONS WHILE PV2 ANDERSON AND SGT TOWLE PROVIDE ADDED SECURITY FOR MEDICAL ASSETS

SPC JOHNSON, PV2 GRACE, SGT GRAVES AND SGT DUBOSE PREPARE TO EVACUATE SGT PRICE DURING THE COMBAT LOGISTICS PATROL LIVE FIRE EXERCISE

299th FSB Preventive Medicine Food Service Sanitation Inspections

- LOO: Sustaining Combat Power
- Who: 299th FSB, Prev Med
- What: 299th Preventive Medicine conducts routine sanitation inspections of unit dining facilities while deployed to FOB Dagger (Grafenwoehr).
- When: 8 Feb 06
- Where: FOB Dagger (Grafenwoehr)
- Why/Significance: Each of the seven DFAC's are checked to ensure the highest quality of food is served in the safest possible manner while maintaining cleanliness.
- Bulletized: 299th FSB sustains combat power through Preventative Medical inspections.

SPC George Soliz, Preventive Medicine Specialist, 299th FSB checks stored food for evidence of spoilage.

SPC Soliz and SSG Kevin Johnson, Food Service Manager, 9th EN, check the temperature of meat to ensure it is held at a temperature that will slow the growth of potentially harmful bacteria.

HHC 299th M16A4/M4 Qualification

LTC Sledd observes the progress of Soldiers from HHC 299th qualifying on their newly assigned M16A4 rifles and M4 Carbine rifles on range 103 at Grafenwohr Training Area on 13 July 2006.

SSG Taylor provides instruction to a PSD Soldier during individual weapons qualification.

CSM Cousin speaks to the NCOs of 299th on the importance of Pre-Combat Checks

299th NCOs establish a hasty ECP with a "tower" providing overwatch for the vehicle search area.

299th Forward Support Battalion

The NCOs of 299th conducted professional development on 16 July on the establishment of Entry Control Points for base security and Pre-Combat Checks and Inspections. This combat-focused training establishes standards for our leaders to then train their Soldiers!

SFC Nichols, A CO, teaches the NCOs of the Battalion about Pre-Combat Checks and Pre-Combat Inspections.

A 299th Soldier, with a Bradley Fighting Vehicle to his rear, provides security at an entry control point.

299th FSB and Logistik Battlion 467 Partnership Event

Officers of LogBtl 467 listen to Lessons Learned by the 299th FSB during OIF II.

299th and LogBtl 467 spent August 3rd enjoying comradery and sharing lessons learned from Iraq and Afghanistan to prepare the Germans for their first deployment to Afghanistan. After the brief a soccer match was held followed by a german-style barbeque at their dining facility. 299th is already making plans to host the Germans at Conn Barracks after returning from Iraq.

CPT Buckner briefs the Germans on IED TTPs and S-3 Operations in Iraq.

The German Commander, Oberstleutnant Brandes, addresses the officers at the BBQ.

Oberleutnant Tauberberg, Mrs. McCrory and Mrs. Polacek watch the soccer scrimmage.

CPT McCrory, B/299 CDR enjoys comradery with his German counterpart.

Lifeline Officers huddle before the beginning of the match. 299th won the scrimmage 4-3.

299 FSB 9mm Range

2LT Gouthro (HHC) scans her lane for targets to engage.

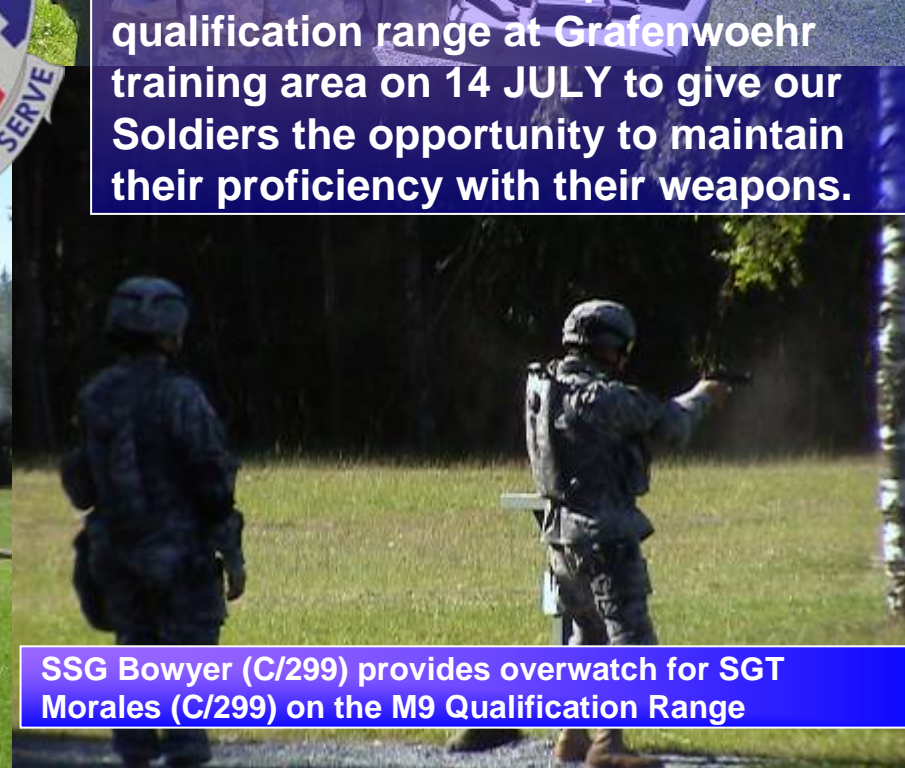

MAJ Hatcher (C/299) engages targets with his 9mm Pistol.

299th conducted an M9 pistol qualification range at Grafenwoehr training area on 14 JULY to give our Soldiers the opportunity to maintain their proficiency with their weapons.

1LT Skidmore (C/299) engages his target on the M9 Qualification range.

SSG Bowyer (C/299) provides overwatch for SGT Morales (C/299) on the M9 Qualification Range

299th FSB M16/M4 Rifle Range

As one of the keystones of our profession, 299th FSB Soldiers have honed their skills at marksmanship over the past week in Grafenwoehr. 299th has recently turned in all their old rifles in exchange for newer M16A4 rifles and M4 carbines.

PFC Somers, C Co, engages targets in the prone unsupported firing position.

SPC Serna, B Co, strikes a warrior pose as he enters the firing line at the M16 range with PVT Price and SPC Brown of B Co.

B Co Soldiers SPC Tyler and SSG Napier take aim as SPC Cizmadia and SGT Butler coach them.